

G. Michael Carducci, CCA, CMT

Mike Carducci was a caregiver for his seriously ill father for seven years. Mike was also the “caregiver’s caregiver” for his wife, Bobbi. Mike has joined his wife in being an advocate for the in-home caregiver and has spoken nationally on issues that are unique to male in-home caregivers and how to support a primary caregiver (be a caregiver’s caregiver). In addition to being a Certified Caregiving Advocate (CCA), Mike has worked with local assisted living and memory care facilities with their 'Music and Memory' program. Mike has completed Caregiver Basic Training (Caregiver Training University), Empathy Music Detective Training (Alive Inside Organization) and is a member of the Professional Association of Caregivers.

Prior to being a caregiver advocate, Mike spent 31 years as a civilian federal employee with U.S. Department of Defense where he has received numerous awards and honors. In that capacity, he has had the opportunity to perform presentations on National Defense/Intelligence programs and issues to various heads of Federal Government Intelligence Agencies, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, US Congress (Armed Services and Intelligence Committees) and even 3 Presidents of the United States.
